PAOLOS TK

Roots reggae with Ethiopian and Eritrean soul · Singer-songwriter · Eugene, Oregon · Recording and performing since 1991

BIO

Paolos TK blends the rhythms of Ethiopia and Eritrea with the heart of Jamaican reggae. His journey, from seeking refuge to building a new life in America, runs through every song: music of resilience, faith and hope.

He released his debut album, Contagious Love, in 1991. In the early '90s he was a founding member of Zionsoundz in Santa Cruz, California, alongside Miguel Migs, who went on to become an internationally known house music producer and DJ. The band recorded its album in 1993; its top track is "Babylon by the River."

His band over the years has included bassist Henry Sarmiento, who went on to found Sonic Vista Studios in Ibiza, Spain.

Solo albums Liberty (1999) and Wounded Bear (2004) followed, along with Bella (2016), three songs with Al Pancho released on Zion Soundz Records and distributed by VP Records (VPAL). Now based in Eugene, Oregon, Paolos TK is bringing new music, international collaborations and live shows to a new generation of roots fans.

IN THE STUDIO NOW: a new reggae album with some big names in the industry.
